CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Frank Lewis asked unanimous consent to print amendments in the Journal to 414.

SENATOR SAVAGE: Any objections? Hearing none, so ordered.

CLERK: That's all Mr. President.

SENATOR SAVAGE: Return to General File, LB 430.

CLERK: Read title. Mr. President, the bill had previously been indefinitely postponed. It was then placed on General File. There are a series of amendments pending, Mr. President, none of which have been adopted apparently.

SENATOR SAVAGE: Read the amendments.

CLERK: It appears that none of the amendments, Mr. President, have been adopted. The first amendment, Mr. President, I should also say that after the bill was raised on General File it failed to advance on April 3rd. The first amendment is offered by Senator Rumery. This amendment is found on page 1125. On page 3, line 17, after "consumption" insert "except food and food products sold at any restaurant which is open to the general public". Signed, Senator Rumery.

SENATOR SAVAGE: Chair recognizes Senator Rumery.

SENATOR RUMERY: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, we've heard a lot of debate on this floor concerning this bill. Among other statements that have been made was that the candidates for Governor in the last election all agreed that sales on food taxes should be eliminated. However, there were some, I think, that favored the keeping the food tax on food that is served in restaurants in hotels. I'd move the adoption of the amendment.
